

BUSINESS

WATERFORD'S BUSINESS NEWS

EDITED BY ANDREW DOYLE

Premier Group pleased with two-place move in Best Company to work for ratings

Celebrating its fourth consecutive year as one of Ireland's 50 Best Companies to work for, Premier Group has an extra reason to celebrate this year as the company has moved up two places in the hotly contested rankings.

The company, the pioneer of specialised recruitment in Ireland, operates two offices in the South East one in Waterford city and one in Kilkenny city and employs 22 people.

These offices manage the entire South East region including Waterford, Kilkenny, Carlow, Kildare, Tipperary, Wexford and Wicklow.

According to a detailed assessment by the Great Place to Work Institute Ireland, Premier Group is the twelfth best place to work in Ireland. Mr Micheál Martin, TD, Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment, made the announcement prior to an awards ceremony in the Crowne Plaza Airport Hotel, Dublin, attended by over 600 guests.

The company also received a special commendation for its work-life balance practices. Trefor Murphy, Regional Director, commented: "We are delighted to win this coveted award four years in a row, particularly since it was voted for by our own employees. The people at Premier are our biggest asset and we are very proud of them.

At Premier we have worked hard to provide an enjoyable and respectful working environment. This has undoubtedly contributed to Premier being a highly productive and successful organisation.

We believe in offering meaningful and substantial incentives and benefits to our employees to help to make their time working for us both enjoyable and productive."